21564 PICKETT, James. Enemies beyond the red sands: the Bukhara-Khiva dynamic as mediated by textual genre. Journal of Persianate Studies, 9 ii (2016) pp. 158-182. Argues that our understanding of the relationship between the khanates of Bukhara and Khiva is fundamentally shaped by textual genre. "Some genres - such as chronicles and legal writing - were well equipped to articulate rivalry and difference. Others - such as Sufi hagiography or chancellery documents - contained the tools for transcending these two polities."
