253 RIECKEN, Nils. Relational difference and the grounds of comparison: Abdallah Laroui's critique of centrism. ReOrient, 2 i (2016) pp. 12-30. Examines how Laroui develops a critique of centrist modes of representing difference. "I argue that Laroui himself is situated within hegemonic, hierarchical, and centrist practices of comparison that treat the difference between 'Europe' on one hand and 'Islam' and 'Arab culture' on the other as foundational."
