1748 MAGHSOUDLOU, Salimeh. The status of the spirit in al-Mustamlî al-Buḥārî's Sharḥ al-ta'arruf: case study of the interrelationships of Ḥanafite Sufism, Sunnî Kalām and Avicennism in the fifth/eleventh century Transoxiana. Arabic Sciences and Philosophy, 28 ii (2018) pp. 225-255. Presents al-Mustamlî al-Buḥārî and his voluminous commentary on al-Kalābādihî's compendium of Sūfî doctrines, al-Ta'arruf li-madhhab al-taṣawwuf which contains extensive discussions of kalām issues. In dealing with the nature of the spirit, however, al-Mustamlî goes beyond the physicalist anthropology of the kalām and presents an argument for the existence of the spirit that has some affinities with Avicenna's proof of the existence of human rational soul, as it appears in the context of his famous thought experiment, the "flying man".
Abstract(s): French.
