6946 METZGER, Evan. Historical representation as resurrection: al-Udfuwī and the imitation of Allāh. New readings in Arabic historiography from late medieval Egypt and Syria: proceedings of the themed day of the Fifth Conference of the School of Mamluk Studies. Ed. Jo van Steenberg and Maya Termonia. Leiden & Boston: Brill, 2021, (Islamic History and Civilization, 179), pp. 429-465. Al-Udfuwī's al-Tāli' al-sa'īd "is a unique source for Mamluk history. Its extraordinary nature and value are due to not only its inclusion of 594 biographies, including four women who were either born or spent a considerable amount of time in Upper Egypt, but also the detailed geographical description of Upper Egypt that al-Udfuwī included at the beginning of the text."
