History of the Islamic Peoples
Contents

PREFACE TO THE GERMAN EDITION

TRANSLATOR’S NOTE

I. THE ARABS AND THE ARAB EMPIRE

1. Arabia before Islam

2. The Prophet Muhammad

3. Muhammad and His Teachings
   His theology and eschatology, 36. Cult and ritual, 39. Pilgrimage, 41. Poor-tax, holy war, food laws, marriage, 43; slavery, criminal law, 44.

4. The First Four Caliphs Abu Bakr; defection of the Bedouins, 45. Battle of Buzakha, 46. Musaylimah and Sajah, 46, battle of CONTENTS

5. The Umayyads

II. THE ISLAMIC EMPIRE AND ITS DISSOLUTION

1. The First 'Abbasids

Saffah and Mansur, 107. 'Alids put down, 108.
CONTENTS

2. The Decay of the Caliphate and the Rise of Minor Dynasties

3. Persians and Turks

CONTENTS

4. Islam in Spain and in North Africa 181

5. The Near East in the Age of the Crusades and the Rise of the Mamluks in Egypt 221

6. Turks and Mongols: the End of the Caliphate 240 and his wazir Rashid-ad-Din, 251. Beginnings of Turkish literature, 253. The Persian classics Sa’di and Hafiz, 254, and Jalal-ad-Din ar-Rumi, 255.

III. THE OTTOMAN TURKS AS THE LEADING POWER IN ISLAM

1. The Origins of the Ottoman Empire and its Expansion down to the time of Suleyman I

2. The Civilization of the Osmanlis at the Zenith of the Empire

   The Ottoman system of fiefs; the army, 296. The Janizaries, 299. The fleet, 303. The sultan and the wazirs, 305. The Diwan and the Erkani Devlet, 308. Law and justice, 309. Clergy, 310. Scholarship, litera-
3. The Rise of the New Persian Empire and the Turkish-Persian Conflict

The monk state of Ardabil and the Sufi Ishaq Safi-ad-Din; his grandson Junayd and the latter's son Haydar, leaders of the Kizilbash, 318. Haydar's son Isma'il subjugates Persia, 320, and the Uzbeks of Khorasan, 321. Shi'ism as state religion, 321. Tahmasp, 322. Isma'il II, 323. Persia's efflorescence under 'Abbas the Great, 324. The decline of the empire under his successors, 326.

4. The Decline of the Ottoman Power down to the End of the Eighteenth Century

Selim II, war with Venice, Turks' naval defeat at Lepanto, 327. Wars with Persia and Austria under Murad III, 328. Peace of Svitatorok under Ahmed; Revolts in Anatolia and Syria, 329. The Druze prince Fakhr-ad-Din, 330. War with Venice on Crete; empire re-organized by Muhammad Köprülü, 332. Crete captured; wars with Poland, 334. Turks defeated before Vienna and driven out of Hungary, 335. Peace of Karlowitz; Peter the Great and Charles XII, 336. War with Venice and Austria; peace of Passarowitz, 337. End of the Safavids, rise of the Afghans in Persia, 337. The Russians in the Caucasus, 337. Persia under Nadir Shah, 338. Turkey's war with Russia, loss of Crimea, 341.

IV. ISLAM IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

1. The Ottoman Empire and Egypt

Age of Tanzimat (Reforms), 344. Serbian uprising, 345. Janizaries destroyed by Mahmud II, 346. Muhammad 'Ali, governor of Egypt, 348. His son Ibra-

2. Intellectual Life in the Ottoman Empire and in Egypt in the Nineteenth Century

3. North Africa

Tripolitania, 396. The French conquer Algeria, 397,

4. The Sudan

5. Persia and Afghanistan

V. THE ISLAMIC STATES AFTER THE WORLD WAR

1. Turkey

Istanbul occupied by the Allies, Smyrna by the Greeks, 438. Mustafa Kemal in Anatolia, 439. The National Pact of Sivas; Kemal becomes president of the National Assembly at Ankara, 440, Ghazi after his

2. Egypt

3. Arabia

by Ibn-Sa‘ud, abandoned by Britain, 476. ‘Abd-al-‘Aziz ibn-Sa‘ud against the house of Rashid and against Husayn, 477. Ibn-Sa‘ud king of Najd, 477, and of Hijaz, 478. Muslim congress in Mecca, 478. Clash with the emir of ‘Asir and the imam Yahya of Yemen, 479. Ibn-Sa‘ud’s home policy, 479.

4. Syria, Palestine, Transjordan, and ‘Iraq

Secret Arab societies and Arab nationalism in World War I, 480. The Sykes-Picot agreement, 481. The King-Crane Commission; Faysal king of Syria, 482.
French mandated area in Syria forms a federal state, 483. Uprising in Syria (1925), 484. Republican constitution; efforts towards a treaty with France, 485.
The Balfour Declaration: national home for the Jewish people in Palestine; Palestine’s regime under the British mandate, 486. Jewish immigration, 487. Conflict between Arabs and Jews; partition schemes, 488.
Palestine conference in London (1939), 489. Transjordan under ‘Abdallah ibn-Husayn, 490. Zionist atttempts to get a foothold there, and the Arabs’ reaction, 491. ‘Iraq conquered by Anglo-Indian forces; civilian administration on Indian pattern, 492. The Mosul vilayet and the region of the Upper Euphrates, 493. Sir Percy Cox as Commissioner of the Mandatary, 494. Faysal king of Iraq, 495. Treaty with Brittain, 496. Nestorian uprising, 497. Ghazi (September 8, 1933–April 4, 1939), 500. Political and cultural development of ‘Iraq, 501.

5. Persia and Afghanistan

Russians and British in Persia after World War I, 501.
Riza Khan, minister of war, commander in the fight against gangs, 502. Parliamentary struggles on the political form of Persia, 503. Khuzistan subdued; Kajars expelled; Riza Shah Pehlevi, shah of Persia, 504. Railroads, financial policy, agriculture, women’s emanci-